

FAVERO

The Favero power armchair is not only elegant, but extremely versatile with an inbuilt footrest that extends when required. A fantastic space saver that eliminates the need for a separate foot stool in your living room. With a high tapered leg, and high back for full head and shoulder support, the Favero armchair is the perfect mix of comfort and style. Complete that with stylish piping, slimline arms and a discrete silver button for the footrest, you will certainly have a timeless addition in your living room with the Favero.
